The primary colours are red, blue and yellow.

The secondary colours are orange, purple and green - which could be mixed by blending the primary colours with specific formulas.

Yellow and blue make green.
Red and blue make purple.
Yellow and red make orange.

Adding white to a colour will lighten it and adding black will tint it into a darker shade.